How to attend the weekly drop in

 Bring a question about how to word things for an international audience.

 Once I've answered it, you're free to leave.

 If you prefer, stick around to learn from the questions brought by other people.

Click on the Zoom link between 3-4pm GMT. I am available every Wednesday - check my LinkedIn posts for any cancellations.

This event is for native English speakers or people who speak English to a very high standard. It isn't a lesson for people who are learning English.
